

Translanguaging for Multilingual and Multicultural Education

March 22nd, 2022 - 12:00-1:30pm

Food Studies and Multilingual Education

Ana Pairet Viñas, Ph.D.

Department of French, Rutgers University

The presenter will discuss course design and learning outcomes in a Language Across the Curriculum LEP module and a graduate seminar for K-12 educators (Cooking and Cultural Heritage).

Collaborative innovative efforts in developing modules based on Language Across Curriculum

Shaheen Parveen, Ph.D.

Department of African, Middle Eastern and South Asian Languages and Literatures, Rutgers University

The presenter will address the challenges and best practices for a sustainable future for LCTL (Less Commonly Taught Languages) instruction and explore linkages and adaptability across institutions.

Rethinking Difference

Nela Navarro

Rutgers English Language Institute (RELI),
Department of English-Writing Program, Rutgers University

The presenter will explore translingual ideas of language difference, present culturally and linguistically responsive approaches to teaching writing to EAL learners (English as an additional language) in multilingual university spaces, and consider ways to move away from deficit-based approaches toward inclusive, strengths-based practices and perspectives.

Register at: <https://go.rutgers.edu/mu31ejw>

<https://go.rutgers.edu/faculty-forum> language.engagement@rutgers.edu